Directions for submitting a request for approval of undergraduate degrees/degree programs

University System of Ohio (USO) institutions requesting approval from the Chancellor of the Ohio Board of Regents to deliver undergraduate programs are required to complete and submit the enclosed proposal as part of the approval process. If the institution has not already done so, it must submit an Initial Inquiry to begin the review process. Questions about the Initial Inquiry or the proposal template may be submitted to Matt Exline, assistant director for program development and approval, at (614) 728-3095 or mexline@regents.state.oh.us. Once the initial inquiry is received, an institutional mentor will be assigned to the institution to assist in the development and review of the request.

Depending on the nature of the request, the institution may be asked to submit additional information in the form of a supplement or supplements (e.g., online course offerings, off-campus locations, flexible delivery schedules etc.). The institutional mentor will assist the institution in determining what forms are needed to complete the review process.

If the request also requires the approval of the Higher Learning Commission of the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools (HLC), or if the institution also intends to pursue programmatic/specialized accreditation for the request, the institution may submit materials prepared for HLC or the programmatic/specialized accrediting body in lieu of submitting this proposal and any applicable supplement forms.

If the institution is submitting a request for an educator preparation program, additional information will be requested to complete the review.

The institutional mentor will provide directions for submitting the request. Electronic submission of all review materials is preferred. The proposal itself must remain a Microsoft Word document. Appendix items should be clearly labeled and may be submitted as Microsoft Office documents (e.g., Word or Excel) or as PDF documents. If the electronic documents are too numerous or too cumbersome to email, you may copy them to a CD or "flash drive" and then mail the CD or flash drive to our office.

1.1 Provide a brief summary of the request that will serve as an introduction for the reviewers.

Program Description

The B.A. in Social Studies and Traditions provides core studies in history, sociology, political science, anthropology, economics, geography, and psychology at the Lake Campus of Wright State University. A background in social studies and traditions offers knowledge about different societies and cultures across a wide span of time, and allows students to understand changes and evaluate decisions made across historical periods and social contexts. The study of history and the social sciences helps students take their place in the modern world, as it engages a diverse array of social issues and places contemporary events in a longer historical context, thus enabling us to understand the present by looking at the past. Exposure to the various disciplines teaches students how to think critically, use evidence, and consider diverse points of view. The acquisition of these skills will position students well if they choose to continue on to a graduate degree program or supplement their studies in social studies education (including teaching at the high school or community college level—which may require certain qualifying coursework in education); the degree also provides a strong foundation for those pursuing careers in such fields as law, government, journalism, public policy, library science, museum work, and organizational leadership. The degree will, more broadly, enable program graduates to be productive members of society and the economy in the decades to come.

SECTION 2: ACCREDITATION

2.1 Regional accreditation

Higher Learning Commission

- Original date of accreditation: July 26, 1968
- Date of last review: June 28, 2016
- Date of next review: Assurance Argument 4 Year Report due June 29, 2020

2.2 Results of the last accreditation review

- Wright State University completed the Assurance Argument for the Higher Learning Commission's (HLC) sit visit in March, 2016. Wright State received a letter of notification from the HLC on July 1 affirming Wright State's accreditation until 2025-2026 with action for interim monitoring (letter attached). An interim report on integrity in all operations, including auxiliary functions and development of a compliance program and establishment of a contracting organization was submitted by the June 30, 2017 deadline. The interim report included findings/agreements of the ongoing Federal investigation. Wright State also submitted an interim report by June 30, 2017 on documenting a credit hour policy that addresses all instructional modalities. Wright State will submit the Assurance Argument review report which is due June 29, 2020.

Further, describe the reporting hierarchy of the administration, faculty, and staff for the proposed program.*
- The B.A. Degree program in Social Studies and Traditions will be housed within the Humanities and Social Sciences (HSS) Unit of the Lake Campus of Wright State University. The HSS Unit is one of three Academic Units currently in place at the Lake Campus. Program faculty and staff will report to the Academic Unit Director of the Humanities and Social Studies Unit, who, in turn, reports to the Dean of the Lake Campus.
- The Lake Campus faculty and staff responsible for the program will report to the Dean of the Lake Campus.

- Dr. Dane Daniel will serve as the lead administrator for the Social Studies and Traditions A.A. program. Dr. Daniel is already a member of the faculty at the Wright State University, Lake Campus, and teaches courses in History and Philosophy; he will not be granted compensation for the position of SST administrator as this role will be part of his regular teaching and service responsibilities. The administrator will be responsible for coordinating with the Academic Unit Head on matters of scheduling in order to ensure that students will be able to progress toward the completion of the program on schedule. The lead administrator will also work with the faculty of the Lake Campus to coordinate scheduling and preparation of courses required for completion of the degree program.

- Describe any councils, committees, or other organizations that support the development and maintenance of the proposed program. In your response, describe the individuals (by position) that comprise these entities, the terms of their appointment, and the frequency of their meetings.

The degree program was approved by vote of the Undergraduate Curriculum Committee on December 1st, 2017. It was approved by Dr. David Wilson, Academic Unit Director of the Humanities and Social Sciences Unit of the Lake Campus of Wright State University, on December 4th, 2017. The Dean of the Lake Campus approved the A.A. Degree Program in Social Studies and Traditions on December 4th, 2017. The degree program was approved by the Undergraduate Curriculum Committee of Wright State University on December 14th, 2017.

The Wright State University Faculty Senate approved the degree program on February 21st, 2018. The Lake campus faculty have been working with Vice Provost for Curriculum, Dr. Carl Brun, to complete the information needed for the Ohio Department of Higher Education (ODHE) new program proposal. The degree program is currently awaiting approval by the Board of Trustees of Wright State University.

4.2 Program development

- Describe how the proposed program aligns with the institution's mission.
- Wright State University's mission statement declares "We transform the lives of our students, and of the communities we serve." The proposed degree program aligns with this mission statement in several ways. Study of history and the social sciences prepares students to take their place in the modern world. Such study leads them to engage with a diverse array of social issues, and helps them to place contemporary events in a longer historical context. Exposure to the various disciplines teaches students how to think critically, use evidence, and consider diverse points of view. It will be particularly valuable as a supplement to students pursuing a degree in social science education, as the additional content knowledge it provides both assists students in passing their qualifying examinations, and makes them more marketable. The degree program will, more broadly, enable program graduates to be productive and engaged members within society in the years to come. This proposed degree will be the only interdisciplinary BA in social studies at Wright State University, and will be the only BA at the Lake Campus for students wishing to concentrate their focus and coursework around history, sociology, economics, geography, and political science (or any combination of these). Such degree-earning students would be well positioned either to pursue graduate work in one of these fields or to pursue careers in such fields as law, government, journalism, public policy, library science, museum work, and organizational leadership. Again, in the increasingly competitive arena of education, education students with social studies concentrations will have the opportunity to supplement their social studies knowledge, portfolio, and resumes with the degree.
- Indicate whether the institution performed a needs assessment/market analysis to determine a need for the program. If so, briefly describe the results of those findings. If completed, submit the full analysis as an appendix item.

Surveys have been conducted of both current and prospective Lake Campus students in an effort to gauge those interested in the Social Studies and Traditions degree programs (A.A. and B.A.). To this point we have received over 20 surveys indicating that students would be somewhat or very interested in the degree programs; a few students indicated that they would attend the WSU-Lake Campus only if the SST program were offered.

- Indicate whether the institution consulted with advisory groups, business and industry, or other experts in the development of the proposed program. If so, briefly describe the involvement of these groups in the development of the program.
- We have collected letters of support from several individuals within the community who very much wish to see such social studies curricular growth at the Lake Campus (and the accompanying opportunities for students and employers in our communities), including Betsy Crites (Wright State University Lake Campus College of Education Liaison, Lecturer in Education),

Chad Doll (Social Studies Department Chair, St Marys Memorial High School), Mitch Eiting (President of the Western Ohio Educational Foundation, Manager of Global Community Relations, President of the Midmark Foundation), and Dr. Kenneth Schmiesing (Superintendent of Celina City Schools). These letters may be found as attachments in the Appendix section (Appendix K).

- Indicate whether the proposed program was developed to align with the standards of a specialized or programmatic accreditation agency. If so, indicate whether the institution plans to pursue programmatic/specialized accreditation for the proposed program and provide a timeline for achieving such accreditation. If the program is already accredited, indicate the date that accreditation was achieved and provide information on the next required review.
- N/A

4.3 Collaboration with other Ohio institutions

- Indicate whether any USO institutions within a thirty-mile radius of your institution offers the proposed program. If so, list the institutions that offer the proposed program and provide a rationale for offering an additional program at this site.
- No other Ohio college or university within a thirty-mile radius of the Lake Campus offers this program. We have consulted with Edison State Community College, Wright State Lake campus' closest community college partner. There are several A.A. programs available at Edison that would be good fits for a 2 + 2 transfer to the new B.A. in Social Studies and Traditions.
- Indicate whether the proposed program was developed in collaboration with another institution in Ohio. If so, briefly describe the involvement of each institution in the development of this request and the delivery of the program.

SECTION 5: STUDENT SERVICES

5.1 Admissions policies and procedures

- Describe the admissions requirements for the program. In your response, highlight any differences between the admission requirements for the program and for the institution as a whole.

- Advisors at the Lake campus will work with transfer students to assure that Ohio Department of Higher Education (ODHE) transfer policies are implemented. This includes the acceptance of Ohio Transfer Module (OTM) courses towards the Wright State University General Education program called Core. All Transfer Assurance Guide (TAG), Career Technology Assurance Guide (TAG), and Military Assurance Guide (MTAG) courses are accepted and applied as course equivalencies for instances where Wright State offers the course. Wright State University updates these course equivalencies in a data base called Transferology every semester to assure that the ODHE transfer policies. Transferology is a tool students can use to locate course equivalencies at Wright State that will transfer from other schools. Additionally, several departments provide Prior Learning Assessment (PLA) by exam or portfolio for students to demonstrate that they have mastered the learning outcomes of a specific course. The PLA course equivalencies and CTAG course equivalencies are posted at the following websites: https://www.wright.edu/admissions/transfer/prior-learning_and_assessment<https://www.wright.edu/admissions/transfer/career-technical-assurance-guide>. Students may also request the evaluation of transfer credit from private Ohio and out-of-state colleges and universities. Students may also appeal the transfer evaluation decisions by contacting their academic advisor.

5.2 Student administrative services

- Indicate whether the student administrative services (e.g., admissions, financial aid, registrar, etc.) currently available at the institution are adequate to support the program. If new or expanded services will be needed, describe the need and provide a timeline for acquiring/implementing such services.
- The existing student administrative services at the Lake Campus are completely adequate to support the establishment of the Social Studies and Traditions degree programs. No new and/or expanded student administrative services will be necessary. While Dr. Daniel will be serving as the program director, he will not be accepting any additional stipend in order to perform this role.

The Lake Campus has a number staff members in place to provide assistance with issues relating to admissions, financial aid, registration, and advising. The campus's Enrollment Services Office is open from Monday through Friday, and its staff are available to address questions regarding admission requirements, available degree programs, etc. The campus employs two Enrollment Service Advisors, who are also available to address questions relating to student financial aid, or to matters pertaining to the Registrar's office.

5.3 Student academic services

- Indicate whether the student academic services (e.g., career services, counseling, tutoring, ADA, etc.) currently available at the institution are adequate to support the program. If new or expanded services will be needed, describe the need and provide a timeline for acquiring/implementing such services.
- The existing student academic services at the Lake Campus are completely adequate to support the establishment of the Social Studies and Traditions degree programs. No new and/or expanded student academic services will be necessary.

The campus Career Services Office, located in Andrews Hall, offers career related resources and services to WSU students, alumni, and area employers. This office posts part- and full-time job opportunities and partners with the Dayton WSU Career Services office as well as other regional job opportunity agencies.

Counseling services for Lake Campus students are provided by Ms. Kim Alstaetter, LPCCCS, CDCA. Students may visit either during scheduled office hours (Mondays and Thursdays), or by appointment.

The Lake Campus Student Success Center offers academic support so that students can meet the demands of college-level coursework. Open Monday through Friday, it provides access to study spaces, tutoring services, assistance with writing and organizational skills, as well as an array of other services.

The campus Office of Disability Services provides a variety of services to assist students with disabilities in realizing their potential. These supplemental services include readers, scribes, extended testing arrangements, test proctoring, and textbooks on CD.

SECTION 6: CURRICULUM

6.1 Introduction

- Provide a brief description of the proposed program as it would appear in the institution's catalog.
- The B.A. in Social Studies and Traditions provides core studies in history, sociology, political science, anthropology, economics, geography, and psychology at the Lake Campus of Wright State University. This degree program establishes an opportunity for students wishing to pursue an interest in the social sciences that is not currently available within the campus's academic footprint. Survey data collected from prospective students over the past 18 months has identified numerous students who would enroll at the Lake Campus if they had the opportunity to select this major. A background in social studies and traditions offers knowledge about different societies and cultures across a wide span of time, and allows students to understand changes and evaluate decisions made across historical periods and social contexts. The study of history and the social sciences helps students take their place in the modern world, as it engages a diverse array of social issues and places contemporary events in a longer historical context, thus enabling us to understand the present by looking at the past. Exposure to the various disciplines teaches students how to think critically, use evidence, and consider diverse points of view. In particular, this program will be of great value to students pursuing a degree in social science education. Changes made to the requirements for education degrees in recent years have substantially expanded the number of educational pedagogy courses students are required to take. While undoubtedly valuable to students, those curricular changes have come at the expense of content knowledge in history and the related social sciences. Pursuing the SST B.A. concurrently with the education degree offers students the opportunity to acquire additional content knowledge, leaving them far better positioned as they prepare for certification exams, and more marketable as they build their resumes in a competitive market.

6.2 Program goals and objectives

- Describe the goals and objectives of the proposed program. In your response, indicate how these are operationalized in the curriculum.

Program Learning Outcomes

Program graduates will be able to:

- Write proficiently
- Understand the methodologies that historians and social scientists use
- Analyze primary and secondary works and/or social scientific data in order to arrive at coherent and well-organized conclusions
- Examine ancient and contemporary civilizations, cultural norms, and the values and political foundations that have shaped society and their world community as we know it today

Description of Learning Outcomes Assessment Program

Annually, the members of the Lake Campus Social Studies and Traditions Faculty will read and assign a numerical rating, using the rubric below, to papers or other evaluation artifacts written by students in SST classes offered at the Lake Campus. The courses from which papers will be read will be rotated each academic year (i.e., some reviews will involve survey-level courses, others will assess papers produced for upper-level courses).

The rubric utilized will be as follows: each paper will be given a rating of “E” (“excellent”), “S” (“satisfactory”), or “U” (“unsatisfactory) for each of the following benchmarks:

- a. The student’s work demonstrates writing proficiency
- b. The student’s work demonstrates a command of the methodology employed by historians
- c. The student’s work demonstrated the analytical, organizational, and critical skills desired

6.3 Course offerings/descriptions

- Complete the following table to indicate the courses that comprise the program. Please list courses in groups by type (e.g., major/core/technical, general education, elective) and indicate if they are new or existing courses.
- Fit the listed requirements below into the table below

All courses that are required for the completion of the B.A. in Social Studies and Traditions can be completed at the Lake Campus, as they are currently offered as part of the existing faculty’s teaching schedules. Some of the upper-division electives are not currently offered at the Lake Campus. However, sufficient upper-level electives are offered at Lake to allow students who wish to do so to complete the B.A. entirely from the Lake Campus offerings. Students who wish to pursue upper-level electives at the Dayton campus would be entirely free to do so, but this would not be necessary in order for those students to complete their programs of study. Moreover, while not every course listed below is currently being offered at the Lake Campus, all of the listed courses could be offered should there be sufficient student interest.

Description of Learning Outcomes Assessment Program

Annually, the members of the Lake Campus Social Studies and Traditions Faculty will read and assign a numerical rating, using the rubric below, to papers or other evaluation artifacts written by students in history classes offered at the Lake Campus. The courses from which papers will be read will be rotated each academic year (i.e., some reviews will involve survey-level courses, others will assess papers produced for upper-level courses).

The rubric utilized will be as follows: each paper will be given a rating of “E” (“excellent”), “S” (“satisfactory”), or “U” (“unsatisfactory”) for each of the following benchmarks:

- a. The student’s work demonstrates writing proficiency
- b. The student’s work demonstrates a command of the methodology employed by historians
- c. The student’s work demonstrated the analytical, organizational, and critical skills desired

7.2 Measuring student success

The full-time Lake Campus faculty who teach courses in the Social Studies and Traditions B.A. program will share responsibility for measuring student success.

The process for the assessment of the program's Learning Outcomes is indicated above. Additionally, students enrolled in the program will be presented with a number of "Success Markers" that they may use to determine whether they are making satisfactory progress toward the completion of the degree program.

The relevant "Success Markers" for students will be as follows:

Students receiving a B.A. in Social Studies and Traditions are prepared to succeed in a variety of professional environments (as businesses, schools, museums, archives, and libraries utilize skills developed in the SST program), or to pursue a dual degree in a number of academic fields, including Economics, Education, History, Law, Political Science, Psychology, and Sociology. The Lake Faculty will be devising a questionnaire regarding students' planned employment or future study—this questionnaire will be distributed to students at the conclusion of their final semester in the program. At this point, no reliable system has been developed to track graduates within several years following completion of the program.

- The Lake Campus employs a full-time Library & Technology Center (LTC) Director, as well as part-time assistants. The LTC is housed in a new addition to the principal campus building (opened in the Fall of 2019), and houses over 3,000 volumes in the book collection, and over 600 volumes in the reference collection. There are 75+ periodical subscriptions and numerous audiovisual items.
