Q&A summary

A. Budget (Walt Branson)

1. Walt Branson gave a brief overview of the current budget process
2. Senators raised questions regarding:
 - a. Summer expense projections
 - i. Walt Branson indicated that he didn't have expense projections at this time, but typically they would be down along with tuition and fees.
 - b. FY19 projected net income / addition to reserves
 - i. $6.2 million surplus through the end of March with $3 million of that being added to reserves.
 - c. Enrollment projections for budget
 - i. Currently planning for Dayton area first time students being down by around 12%.
 - ii. The drop from last year and the upcoming will likely have a 5-6 year effect.

B. Curricular

1. Senators raised questions and concerns regarding:
 - a. Online course registrations “stealing” from face-to-face registrations (students swapping back and forth between the two)
 - i. Walt Branson indicated that the budget team is aware of the concern.
 - ii. President Schrader shared an example of a two History course sections where the online section filled, and raised its max capacity, while the face-to-face section remained well under its max capacity.
 - b. Guaranteed pathways such as Sinclair 2+2 programs create scheduling problems, and taking all of General Education courses prior to Major courses is not pedagogically sound practice.
 - i. President Schrader indicated that the University has been working with partner institutions to achieve a better integrated experience for the students.

C. Building & Grounds / Physical Plant

1. Student Government Recreation Center Proposal
 - a. There have been no Board of Trustee discussions about this issues, and none are currently planned.
2. Campus beautification
 - a. President Schrader and Faculty President Doom encouraged everyone to participate in the campus beautification project being planned by staff council.
 - b. Physical Plant was one of the first departments to be impacted by significant budget cuts and staff reduction, but this was not the motivation for the beautification project.
 - c. One Senator indicated they like seeing dandelions on campus due to it being an indication that pesticides were not being over used.

D. Other

1. Reconciliation
 - a. There have been a number of new programs put forward already such as:
 - i. Bringing in people to help facilitate conversations, some broad in nature while others with specific departments.
 - ii. Opportunities for engagement between the various groups of the campus community such as the employee appreciation week and campus beautification project.
2. CoLA vote of no confidence
 - a. President Schrader indicated that she believes the Provost received the notice and has met with the Dean.
3. Status of the Wellness program
 - a. President Schrader indicated that the Wellness program was important and it is one of the areas that should be revisited.
