

WRIGHT STATE UNIVERSITY

Faculty Senate Resolution

April 22, 2019

Whereas Dr. Travis E. Doom has served on the Faculty Senate in various capacities since 2009, including as a Faculty Senator for the College of Computer Engineering and Computer Science (2009-16), a member of the Faculty Senate Executive Committee (2011-15, 2016-19), the Faculty Vice President (2016-17), and the Faculty President (2017-19);

Whereas Dr. Travis E. Doom has served on and successfully chaired numerous standing, ad-hoc, administrative, and search committees of the University, the Faculty Senate, and in the College of Computer Engineering and Computer Science;

Whereas Dr. Travis E. Doom has been recognized several times for his outstanding record of service and teaching at Wright State University, including the Trustees Award for Excellence (2018), the Student Government Association's Faculty Member of the Year (2016-17), and the Robert J. Kegerreis Distinguished Professor of Teaching award (2014-17);

Whereas Dr. Travis E. Doom has led the Faculty Senate with integrity, transparency, and reason, and exemplified the principles of sound faculty governance through a time of unprecedented challenges; and

Whereas Dr. Travis E. Doom's passion for teaching, research, and service serve as examples of excellence; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, that the Faculty Senate acknowledges the remarkable accomplishments, leadership, and service of Dr. Travis E. Doom to our students, staff, and faculty; and recognizes Dr. Travis E. Doom for his tireless efforts to advance Wright State University.