

Wright State University Retirees Association

Presents:

Paul R. Leonard, J.D.

Presidential Election of 2020

(A brown bag discussion with WSURA)

In addition to being elected four times to seats in the Ohio General Assembly, Paul Leonard also served as Mayor of Dayton. At the end of his term, he ran and was elected as Lieutenant Governor of Ohio from 1987-1991.

He then returned to Dayton to continue to practice law. He founded the Center for Animal Law and Advocacy, a legal team advocating for harsher penalties for those mistreating animals.

Mr. Leonard also teaches in the political sciences departments at Wright State University and at the University of Dayton.
