

Wright State University Retirees Association

Invites you to our Annual Luncheon
(after a two-year COVID hiatus)

Friday, May 6, 2022
11 a.m. – E.J. Nutter Center Berry Room

Guest speaker: Shelley Dickstein, Dayton City Manager

The doors to the E.J. Nutter Center Berry Room will open at 11 a.m. for social hour, and a buffet luncheon, including a vegetarian option, will begin around noon. Dickstein was appointed Dayton City Manager in 2016 and oversees a city budget of more than $600 million and a workforce of approximately 1,900 employees. During her 25-year tenure, Dickstein was responsible for completion of 125 development projects that created 4,800 new jobs, supported the retention of 15,000 jobs, and leveraged more than $260 million of development in the Dayton community.

Cost per person is $30. All checks must be payable to WSURA or they will be returned. (Unfortunately, our online account can only accommodate membership dues.) Due to COVID, in addition to open and reserved seating for tables of eight, we can accommodate tables of six. Be sure to include your table preference and a list of the names in your party.

RSVPs are due by Friday, April 22, 2022, and confirmations will be sent by email. If cancellation is necessary due to illness, payment will be refunded. Other reimbursements will be considered dependent upon the resale of your reservation.

This year, the WSURA board made the commitment to support the Raider Food Pantry, which offers free grocery items to our university students. We invite attendees to join us in this worthy cause by bringing nonperishable items to this event.

RSVPs are due: Friday, April 22, 2022
