

Tips on How to Study and Pass Actuarial Exams

Dave Kester FSA

Dave has made a career of turning obstacles into opportunities. He believes that change provides opportunity, and that some of his best decisions were the result of changes that were out of his control. He weaves these beliefs into all aspects of his life and its teachings.

Dave has focused most of his career on the actuarial exams while supporting many aspiring actuaries. He has an unwavering commitment to working with individuals and teams in an effort to connect people to help them achieve their goals in the areas of actuarial science, math, family, faith, and sports.

Tong Khon Teh FSA, CFA

Tong has taught various undergraduate actuarial science courses and exam prep courses at Drake University. He is currently the VP of Product at Coaching Actuaries and Salt Solutions. He loves helping students understand challenging concepts and raise their odds in passing the exams.

Additionally, Tong is one of the volunteer program coordinators for the Des Moines Math Motivators program, and a board of director of CFA Society of Iowa.
