

Join us!

Student Social
with Mr. Andy Wilson, Director
Ohio Department of Public Safety

2024 Recipient,
Wright State University
Distinguished Alumni Award

Thursday, February 15

3:30-4:30 pm

Allyn Hall Atrium

Light refreshments will be served

Sponsored by:

COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS
SCHOOL OF SOCIAL SCIENCES AND INTERNATIONAL STUDIES

Questions? Email SoSSIS@wright.edu

Andy Wilson has dedicated his professional life to protecting the citizens of Ohio.

In 2011, he was appointed to serve as the Clark County prosecutor and was later elected to that position for two subsequent terms. He served as Governor Mike DeWine's senior advisor for criminal justice policy beginning in January of 2019.

In 2020, Governor DeWine assigned Wilson to assist the Pike County Prosecutor's Office in prosecuting four individuals accused of brutally murdering eight members of the Rhoden, Manley, and Gilley families in 2016.

In December of 2022, Governor DeWine appointed Wilson Director of the Ohio Department of Public Safety.

Director Wilson has an undergraduate degree in political science from Wright State University and a Juris Doctor from the University of Dayton School of Law.