

MARCH 31 -
APRIL 11, 2025

Join us in fostering a welcoming campus culture at Wright State! The Raider Say Hello Campaign encourages simple, everyday interactions—like saying "hello"—to build connections, uplift spirits, and create a stronger sense of community.

SAY HELLO KICK-OFF

Monday, March 31, 10:00 am, Student Union Atrium

Celebrate the start of the campaign with interactive activities, a community message wall, a flowerpot decorating station, giveaways, and light refreshments. Let's connect and embrace a warm, welcoming season together!

COMMUNITY WALKS: STEP OUTSIDE & SAY HELLO

Thursday, April 3 and Friday, April 11, Noon, Meet at Turning Point Statue in the North Lawn

Take a break, enjoy the fresh air, and engage with others on a guided walk across campus. It's a great opportunity to meet new people, spread positivity, and put the Say Hello spirit into action!

SAY HELLO PANEL DISCUSSION: BUILDING COMMUNICATION SKILLS FOR STUDENT SUCCESS

Wednesday, April 9, 2:00 pm, 019 Student Union

Strong communication skills are key to academic success, personal growth, and building a supportive community. Join a panel of university staff as they share valuable insights on effective communication, navigating challenges, and building a sense of belonging on campus.

TEXT 2 BEFORE 10: STAY CONNECTED & SPREAD POSITIVITY

Start your day with a simple act of kindness! Send a "Good Morning," a word of encouragement, or a quick check-in to two people before 10 AM. These small gestures can brighten someone's day, strengthen connections, and help create a more supportive and welcoming campus community. A little effort goes a long way—reach out and make a difference!

LET'S MAKE WRIGHT STATE A PLACE WHERE EVERYONE FEELS AT HOME!
